3. Market Performance in September 2025

Total Industry Volume (TIV) for September 2025 was 22% lower than August 2025 (74,479 Units).
The higher TIV is attributed to:

- Less working days in September 2025 due to a number of public holidays (4 days)
- "Wait-and-see" attitude towards 2026 National Budget announcement including details on the petrol subsidy rationalisation

4. Outlook for October 2025

The sales in October 2025 is expected to be better than September 2025 due to:

- Impact of National Budget announcement of no extension for CBU BEVs tax exemption is expected to drive demand for BEVs until end of the year
- Year-end promotion campaigns
